

The proposed rule changes for ownership of public media should not be rushed through. Congress should have some time to discuss the and have a democratic debate on the impact. You should be serving the PUBLIC interest in diversity of media voices in the free broadcast media. We are strongly opposed to the proposed changes.